Bernalillo County invites you to “A Day in Paradise”

Join Bernalillo County Commissioner Tim Cummins at “A Day in Paradise” this Saturday, September 29, from 7:00am to 3:00pm at Paradise Hills Park.

“This is a great family-oriented event and provides an opportunity to acknowledge some of the many outstanding members of our community,” says Commissioner Cummins.

This year, “A Day in Paradise” will offer a growers market, craft shop, entertainment, and a vignette performance as part of the “Big Read” featuring the book, “Bless Me Ultima” by renowned New Mexico author Rudolfo Anaya.

The Grower’s Market will begin at 7:00 am and the parade will begin at 9:45 am at Universe and Paradise Hills Boulevard that will end at Paradise Hills Park. Commissioner Cummins and other County officials will present Outstanding Citizen awards to Melissa Duran, Mary Bartlett, Wood & Eunice Freeman, Steve Wentworth, Richard and Mariaelena Garcia, Robert Sewell, Jeanette Baca, Tony Campbell and Phyllis Currie.

Community members can participate in the grower’s market and craft shop by contacting Paradise Hills Community Center. For more information contact Manuel Garcia at (505) 314-0245. Paradise Hills Park is located at 5901 Paradise Hills Boulevard, NW.
